CORRESPONDENCE. - We publish this morning another of the series of European Letters from our own Correspondent, which will attract general attention; also, a letter from the Green River country, by a Kentucky Correspondent.

City Election.

We were disappointed this morning in not being able to give the complete returns from the city election. At four o'clock the Sixth Ward was still uncounted, and would not be completed before six or seven.

Five Union men and four Democratic Councilmen are elected.

THE whole Union City ticket is confidently believed to be elected, including PHILIP KLEIN for Marshal. McGRIFF's majority will be over one thousand votes.

We give full returns in the City News from eight wards.

Township Election. We close our forms at five o'clock, at which time the ballots are not yet counted in the Middle and Lower Precincts of the Township, so that from Owensboro, and a club of the Peace and Constables. The indi- one hundred copies of the JOURNAL cations are that all the Republican are elected. The race between WAScan only be determined by a full count | the position and principles advocated of the votes.

2 Seven Republican Wards. O St. seven out of the nine wards have a majority of Republican voters. Seven of them gave a majority for the general Union city ticket; and but for the faithlessness of a few men the First and Third Wards and reliable Union men.

The Hero of the Day. The Union men of Evansville, the tax-payers, and all good citizens, owe WILLIAM KOLLE a debt of gratitude for the gallant manner in which he conducted the canvass, and his triumphant-election in the Seventh Ward yesterday. When, by dissensions in our own ranks, by the faithlessness of a few men, we threw away the First and Third Wards, and when, an hour past midnight, it looked as if the Copperheads and soreheads had carried the Council, the anxious and true men of the party were electrified by the result of the vote announced from the Seventh Ward-the election of WM. Kolle by forty-five majority, a gain of eighty-seven on the vote for Councilman one year ago. All freely acknowledged that he had saved the day. And it was by indomitable work, and a counsciousness of the responsibility which had been placed upon him; against the lukewarmness of many of our own party friends, and the persistent and united efforts of the Democracy. In the name of the Union Republicans of the City of Evansville and of the First Congressional District, we honor WILLIAM KOLLE as the hero of yesterday's contest.

We publish this morning the proceedings of the Union meeting of the Second District of Kentucky, which convened at Calhoun on Saturday. Owing to the shortness of the notice and the difficulty of reaching the place of meeting on account of high water, the attendance was not large, but most of the counties of the District were represented, and the Convention was composed of influential and earnest men. The resolutions and ticket of the State Convention, which met at Frankfort on the 26th of February, were cordially endorsed, and the Union party of the Second and the whole country. The gentle man selected to make the race for Congress against John Young Brown is JOHN FELAND, Esq., of Hopkinsville, a prominent lawyer, an able speaker, and a devoted loyalist. At the breaking out of the war, true to his attachment to his country, he promptly responded to the call to arms, and entered the Twenty-Fifth Regiment of Kentucky Infantry. After its consolidation with the Seventeenth Kentucky, Mr. FELAND took an active part in organizing the Eighth Kentucky Cavalry, and served with that regiment, we believe, during its time of enlistment. As a soldier, he has a record above reproach. He is one of the true and tried loyalists of Kentucky, who, through all the phases of political affairs in that State, has never faltered in his devotion to his countryles and time of goalf v.

We are informed that he will at once enter upon an active canvass of the District, and will tender a chal lenge to Brown to meet him in a joint discussion of the political issues before the people. Should he accept the voters of the Second District may anticipate a spicy and entertaining debate. Mr. FELAND will not be afraid to charge home upon Brown his record of treason.

The Journal by Kentucky.

One of the best evidences of the earnestness of the Union men of Western Kentucky is the active interest they are taking in the circulation of the Journal! We noticed last week the receipt of clubs from Webster and Ohio Counties. Yesterday we received the following: A club of twenty-four subscribers from Smithland; a club of twenty-two subscribers from Hardinsburg, Breckinridge County; a club of twenty-eight we are unable to give the result of twenty-five from Madisonville, Hopthe election for Trustee, Justices of kins County; making a total of received in one day. This is only the candidates for Justices of the Peace beginning of the good work. We are assured by our friends in the various SAM and HEDDERICH is very close and counties of Western Kentucky that by the Journal are fully approved by the Union men, and appreciating The result of yesterday's election it as a first class newspaper, they clearly establishes the fact that will secure for it a large circulation.
